BIG JOB BEFORE TEDDY

Political Highway is Strewn With Wrecks of Independent Party Movements—Taft Can't Win.

(By W. C. VAN CLEVE.)

Washington, D. C., June 24.—The Chicago convention has come to an end and in the cold gray dawn of the morning after we may cast about for the net results. Taft is the Republican party nominee and Roosevelt heads an independent movement. It was stated in this column two weeks ago that the convention would nominate Taft, and Roosevelt would have himself nominated and continue the fight.

Mr. Taft will be beaten in November and Roosevelt will not be elected. Both are prepared for such an end to their feud and both will be satisfied. With Taft the standpat element retains control of the party and the party machinery. The only thing left for the colonel is to attempt to still further engrave his name on the pages of history as the founder of a new party.

What success Roosevelt will have remains to be seen. The Republican party as now constituted needs to be purged. It has been run for years in the interest of trusts and illegitimate financial combinations. It has fed the public cow straw and milked her for the corporations, and the people have at last waked up to the deception and double dealing. They have heard from the mouths of its own leaders, during their recent discussions, that there has been something rotten in Denmark; that the party has been unfair and dishonest with the people, and that it has subverted the rights of the public to the benefit of a privileged few. It has seen, too, in this convention, that the powers that control will stop at nothing to maintain the deception and to continue the unholy partnership.

That the people have lost faith in their idol is evidenced by the light vote in the presidential primaries. Mr. Roosevelt made much of his success in securing delegates by the primary method, and yet the fact remains that a minority of the Republican party voted at these primaries. With the president of the United States and an ex-president speaking in every important town, and with an unlimited supply of money to spend in organization and newspaper space it was seldom that a vote was secured larger than 40 per cent of the party strength.

The inevitable conclusion is that after listening to the kettle call the pot black, the majority were disgusted and refused to see any choice between two evils. What would it profit them whether the steel trust and the harvester trust and the Morgan interests dominated the White House or whether the trusts now in power should remain supreme? It makes no particular difference to the man about to be eaten which particular cannibal gets him. So they remained in their fields and will keep their powder dry until November.

Colonel Roosevelt probably lost ground by his personal appearance at Chicago. He does not look so good at short range as he does at long distance. The imagination creates ideals which the eye ofttimes shatters. If Mr. Roosevelt's financial backers are willing to continue to supply him with the sinews of war, and his zeal does not desert him, he will do the old organization considerable damage. He has, however, undertaken a herculean task. The matter of inducing men in their sober moments to desert an old party, however rotten it may be, for a new one is a big job. Men usually want their votes to count for something, and the political highway is strewn with the wrecks of independent parties. The progressive party, as it is to be christened, may serve a purpose and show the standpat bosses that they must eventually mend their ways, it may carry one or two states, but the chances are that two Republicans will vote the Democratic ticket where one votes for the progressive Republican candidate. The situation will also tend to cause those whose party prejudice will not permit them to vote with the Democrats to remain away from the polls and not vote at all. But all this matters but little. With or without a progressive party the Democratic nominee in this particular year will sweep the entire west and carry every close state in the east.

The convention not only lifted Colonel Roosevelt's political hide in the nomination of Taft, but it rubbed salt and pepper in when it renominated Sherman for vice president. Four years ago Taft was nominated to please the Roosevelt contingent and Sherman was slipped in to appease the Cannon crowd. Now the Aldrich-Cannon bunch have the whole business.

* * *

Not the least interesting feature of the convention from long distance was the figure cut by Missouri's governor. It would appear that Herbert tore his trousers at Chicago. He went over to the convention with distinct hopes for a vice presidential nomination on the Roosevelt ticket. He was pushed to the front and was made floor leader. He got an ovation and took it seriously. It apparently set the bees to buzzing in his bonnet beyond all control, and he immediately saw visions of the White House. But the dream was rudely ended. What Roosevelt did to Hadley was a plenty, and he did it mighty quick. It was no more nor less than to issue a statement that there would be no compromise candidate, that no genuine progressive would accept a nomination from the convention "unless purged," and that any man nominated by it would not be entitled to progressive support. The effect was to put it up to Hadley to get his votes from the Taft men. The Taft men carried a distinct recollection of a double cross received from the governor at St. Louis, and there was no more heard of Hadley for president. He was not present, so reports say, at the meeting at which Roosevelt was proclaimed an independent candidate.

FINE NEWS SERVICE.

The Report of the National Convention Best Ever Had in Maryville.

The Democrat-Forum is receiving much praise and many commendations for the excellent, full and prompt manner in which it handled the news of the national Republican convention at Chicago last week. It was the best ever received in Maryville, coming as it did from two sources, from the Western Newspaper Union over the Western Union wires and through the Bell Telephone company of this city. The Bell is also maintaining a bulletin board in front of their office on Fourth street.

The Democrat-Forum will bulletin news of the Baltimore convention. The convention opened Tuesday, and as the bulletins were received they were placed in the windows. A large crowd of people was in front of the office all afternoon reading the latest news from Baltimore.

Great interest is being taken in the convention this week, and The Democrat-Forum has made arrangements to handle the convention news. If you want to get the best and true account of the convention, come around to this office and read the bulletins.

DR. FORD TO REMAIN

M. E. PASTOR TURNS DOWN OFFER OF NEW APPOINTMENT.

FELT HIS DUTY WAS HERE

In Spite of Attractiveness of New Field, Duty's Call Will Be Heeded—His Membership Rejoices.

Dr. J. S. Ford, pastor of the First M. E. church of this city, has decided to remain in Maryville and turned down Monday night, the offer of Baker University at Baldwin, Kan., to take charge of raising a $500,000 endowment fund for that university.

This will be good news not only to the members of the church, but to all of the people of Maryville who think highly of Dr. Ford. Dr. Ford has been one of the much loved pastors and one of the best ministers ever in Maryville.

There was great disappointment over Maryville when it was announced that Dr. Ford was thinking of accepting an offer from Baker university, one of which was so much better financially than the Maryville church, and work commenced at once not only by the members of that church, but by other people to urge him to stay. When it was announced Tuesday that Dr. Ford was to remain, they felt glad.

The following is a statement that was written to this paper by Dr. Ford:

"I feel that I owe it to the Democrat-Forum which has treated me with such courtesy, and to the public, and to my own church and people to make the following statement:

"I sent the following telegram to President Wilbur N. Mason last night:

"'The pull toward Baker university is very strong, but under the circumstances the pull toward the Maryville church is stronger. Be assured that I appreciate highly your confidence, and that of your board of trustees, but I must ask that you accept this decision as final.'

"Mrs. Ford and I feel that under all the conditions this is the right thing for us to do. We are delighted with our church and with the people of Maryville, and because of this it is much easier for us to decide the proposition of Baker university. We had the matter under consideration from Tuesday until Saturday before we decided to bring it before the church at all. I had made it very clear to the executive committee of Baker university that the Maryville church had accorded us the most gracious treatment, and that we must give such treatment in return, and therefore I could not consent to going until adjustments satisfactory to this church, and to the district superintendent, Dr. W. B. Christy, could be made. This was made clear also to my district superintendent and my official board. Both have treated the matter with the most beautiful spirit.

"Dr. Christy feels that it would be very unfortunate for this church for me to give up its pastorate at this time, though he made it clear that he would not put any thing in my way. If it were conference time he would feel differently about it. Others have expressed the same opinion. Over and above all this Dr. Christy has been called to the bedside of his son who is down with typhoid fever in Little Rock, Arkansas, and will have to be there two or more weeks. He cannot be here to consult with the officials of this church and to give such careful consideration to the subject as he would want to give. This pastor has been district superintendent and knows something of the embarrassments, burdens and heartaches that come to one with such responsibility. Mrs. Ford and I both feel that under the circumstances we not only have it within our power to speak the word which will adjust this whole matter, but that we would be unworthy of the place we occupy in the church we love if we were unwilling to speak that word. We do speak it, and the speaking of it does not cause, nor ever shall cause, any wounds in our hearts.

"J. S. FORD.

BRYAN REFUSED IT

CHAIRMANSHIP OF RESLUTIONS COMMITTEE TURNED DOWN.

NAME PRESIDENT FIRST

Change in Rules to Meet Wishes of Commoner—Candidate to Be Named Before Platform.

To Meet at 8 o'Clock.

At 2 o'clock the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight, when the various committees will report, with the exception of the resolutions committee.

Rule Was Amended.

The rules committee will report to the convention tonight. They have amended the rule so as to nominate a president before adopting a platform, to conform to the wishes of W. J. Bryan. This is taken to mean that in case a progressive candidate is nominated the platform will be progressive, and if a reactionary candidate is selected to have a reactionary platform adopted.

Bryan Refused to Act.

W. J. Bryan, who had been suggested by Chairman Parker for chairman of the resolutions committee, refused to accept the place. Senator Kern of Indiana was elected chairman of the committee at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Bryan said he does not think the platform will be progressive, adding:

"Why should resolutions committee slap controlling element in the face with a progressive platform?"

Ollie James for Permanent Chairman.

The committee on permanent organization has selected Ollie James, senator-elect from Kentucky, as permanent chairman of the convention.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, Md., June 26.—The second day's session of the Democratic national convention met today about 12 o'clock. The weather was very hot.

Judge Alton B. Parker was cheered as he appeared on the platform. Bishop John Murry of Maryland offered the invocation. Chairman Parker has trouble in getting the convention to order.

The credentials committee asks until 8 o'clock to complete hearing contests, and it was moved that when the convention adjourns it do so until 8 o'clock.

Several speakers addressed the convention, Ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri being the first one. Mr. Folk eulogized Bryan and called him the greatest moral teacher of the age. He made argument for nomination of progressive Democrat and for the adoption of a progressive platform.

While Mr. Folk was talking the convention was in disorder, and Chairman Parker said:

"There is no excuse for this moving about in the aisles. No gentleman will talk to his neighbor while this distinguished speaker is talking.

General Raynor of Baltimore followed Mr. Folk. As the general came to the platform the band started playing and the crowds were wild. Order was restored. Clayton of Alabama followed Mr. Raynor, after which Senator Gore of Oklahoma spoke. During Mr. Gore's speech the convention was very quiet and orderly. He urged the adoption of a progressive platform.

Resolutions Committee to Meet.

Chairman Parker announced that the committee on resolutions would meet at 2 o'clock in room C.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

At Meeting Held at Skidmore Tuesday Over Drainage Ditch From Quitman to Holt County Line.

At a meeting held at the opera house at Skidmore on Tuesday afternoon no action was taken by the many landholders present in regard to a drainage ditch in that section of the country. The intention of many is to have the ditch built similar to the one from Braddyville to Quitman, and to start with the proposed new ditch at Quitman and then run down to the Holt county drainage ditch, or about eleven miles.

While the meeting didn't do anything, for the reason that they did not have the data, such as the cost of constructing the ditch and of forming an organization, the sentiment is in favor of proceeding with the undertaking. Another meeting will be held within the near future, when some data will be presented why the ditch should be built.

It is thought that the landholders will build the ditch, but not until it is necessary for them to do so.

CHURCH PICNIC ON TUESDAY.

The Presbyterians Had an Enjoyable Affair at the Watson Farm West of City.

Bachelors are three times as good as married men, and they proved it Tuesday when the single men's ball team beat the married men's team 18 to 6 at the Presbyterian picnic held at Watson's farm, west of Maryville. The married men had a four-foot willow bat and made ground rules that any ball over the fence was good for only one base. But even that could not bring them the victory.

After the game a number of events were run off, high jumping, married and single men's races, and several races by the young women; then there were some more races by other women (of the same age). Rev. Harkness also performed the herculean feat of lifting seven men, with Judge Crawford as the goat. The best event of the day, however, was the blind men's fight, in which Will Sawyers and Roland Murray featured. They were blindfolded and given paper clubs, and in their efforts to "swat" each other they pounded the grass unmercifully and made jagged holes in the air.

It would be superfluous to try to tell of the piles of chicken, meat, sandwiches, cake, ice cream, etc.

It was nearly 6 o'clock before the happy, sticky, picnicky crowd was ready to go home in the hay racks, buggies and automobiles that had been provided to haul every one. Everybody was better acquainted with everybody else, was refreshed from the grind, and plans were being made for another picnic as soon as possible.

FORMER PRESIDENT SPOKE.

Professor Frank Deerwester of Washington Addressed State Normal Students Wednesday.

Professor Frank Deerwester of Bellingham, Wash., addressed the State Normal students at assembly hour Wednesday morning. He made a most happy speech, expressing gratification over the success of the school and admiration for the beauty of the new building. The fact that he was the first president of the school and carried on the pioneer work of its establishment added to the interest of his address.

In company with his daughter, Dorothy, who will visit in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Robinson, Professor Deerwester went through the building Wednesday morning. He arrived in the city Tuesday night and was the guest of the Robinsons until Wednesday evening, when he left for New York City.

Harry Irwin Wires That the Missourian Will Win, as Tuesday's Vote Eliminates Wilson.

Harry M. Irwin of this city, who is attending the Democratic national convention at Baltimore this week, sent a telegram to Frank Owens, being received at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The telegram was sent Tuesday night from Baltimore.

The telegram reads:

"All here agree Tuesday's vote eliminates Wilson and practically assures Clark's nomination. Harmony prevails Tuesday night. Parker's speech demands Bryan for chairman of resolutions committee and pleases progressives. Leaders predict Clark's nomination by third ballot, perhaps on first. Crowds on street and in hotels wild for Clark and can't supply Clark badges fast enough."

The program for the convention will be announced in two weeks or so. A part of the program was arranged Tuesday.

Obituary.

Harrison L. Gilbert was born in Lee county, Virginia, June 27, 1890. met death by drowning in the Nodaway river, June 23, 1912. Age, 21 years 11 months 26 days.

His parents came to Missouri when he was about 2 years of age, and he has resided within the boundaries of this state ever since. He was very highly esteemed and loved by the members of his family, being the youngest of eight children. He was united in holy matrimony to Miss Florence Wickard, January 11, 1911. This union was a happy one, both esteeming each other as highly as is possible for husband and wife.

As husband he was loving and tender, as son he was affectionate and obedient, as brother he was kind and forbearing, and as friend he was devoted and true.

He was converted to the Lord about two years ago and joined the M. E. church in Barnard, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

He leaves his beloved wife, Mrs. Florence Gilbert; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gilbert; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson; six brothers, Riley, William, Albert, Floyd, Silas and Marion Gilbert. Also one half-sister, Mrs. Alfred Gilbert, and one half-brother, J. D. Kelley, as well as many relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

The body of the deceased was brought from his home, near Maryville, Mo., to Barnard, his former home, where the funeral services were conducted by the writer in the First M. E. church, after which the the body was laid to rest in a cemetery near by. "Blest hour when righteous souls shall meet—
Shall meet to part no more;
And with celestial welcome greet
On an immortal shore!

Each tender tie dissolved with pain,
With endless bliss is crowned;
All that was dead revives again,
All that was lost is found."

W. E. ROYSTON,
Pastor M. E. Church, Barnard, Mo.

Depending On.

An artist of international fame recently had a bright little Swedish girl posing for him, and thinking to keep her expression animated, he conversed with her while he worked.

"Do you go to school, Ragnhild?" the great man inquired with affable complacency.

"Oh yes," was the reply.

"And what are you going to be when you grow up?"

Ragnhild's face beamed.

"If I have sense," she answered, "I will be a school teacher. If I have no sense, I will paint pictures—like you."

A Long Excuse.

The magazine writer rolled in late at night and found his better half sitting up, awaiting his coming.

"What have you got to offer this time?" she demanded.

"I can give you a 1,200 words story," was the reply of the writer, whose answer was dictated by force of habit.

Colorado is a Wonderful Place for Children

I don't know any other place where children are so benefited from a few weeks of outdoor life, as they are in Colorado. The summer life out there is about as ideal as can be imagined, and you can live there nowadays so comfortably, and at such moderate cost. There are scores of nice, clean, wholesome boarding houses and ranch houses in Colorado where the rates are from $10 to $15 a week, and where you can live well and comfortably. Then, of course, there are elaborate, modern hotels for those who require more.

If you know of anyone who is going to Colorado, ask them to come in and get a copy of our folder, telling all about where to go, what to see, etc. It is easy to go to Colorado—only-one-night-on-the-road—and the trains are so comfortable and modern that the trip out and back is really a great part of the pleasure of it all.

CLARK'S CHANCES APPEAR BETTER

Supporters of Missourian Confident of His Nomination.

WILSON MEN ALSO SEE VICTORY

Friends of New Jersey Man Claim He is the Only Real Progressive Before the Convention—First Ballot Wednesday Night.

Baltimore, June 26.—Champ Clark looms up now as the probable nominee of the Democratic convention. The swing is with Clark.

It will not be a first ballot nomination. The reason is that the favorite son instructions must be followed. Harmon must receive his 57 instructed votes; Underwood his 91, but after the first ballot the expected may happen.

The first ballot on president will probably come late Wednesday night.

Under the two-thirds rule—and talk of abandoning that rule seems to have vanished—it takes 728 votes to land the nomination. Whether in the end Clark will get enough additions to his instructed and pledged delegates to bring his total up to the desired figure depends in a large measure on the action of Chief Murphy and the other leaders of the forces of reaction; on whether they will in the end throw their support to the man from Missouri.

Tammany Votes Uncertain.

There is always suspicion about an unfulfilled pledge of Tammany, and Tammany and the reactionaries in this convention are one.

The Clark supporters believe, and believe firmly, that they are to have New York's 90 votes, and the hundreds of Missourians in Baltimore are jubilant over the favorable outlook for the Speaker.

Ex-Gov. Francis said:

"It's quite possible that Mr. Clark will have a majority on the first ballot. I do not rely upon that much but it is possible. On the second or third ballot, however, I am sure that he will show up with a majority of the delegates. Of that I am positive. The candidate who first shows a majority will then get the two-thirds. That is Democratic convention history."

"No, he will not get the entire Parker vote. We don't expect that. But he will get a goodly portion of it. Besides, we know that he will draw from the Bryan vote."

"He has so conducted himself that when the voting begins the ultra-conservatives and the ultra-progressives can come to him. He has done nothing to offend anyone. If he wins it will be a great presidential victory. He will have won with scarcely any money for campaign purposes."

Wilson Not Downcast.

The Woodrow Wilson supporters profess not to be downcast by the defeat of the progressives in the Parker-Bryan vote. R. S. Hudspeth, national committeeman from New Jersey, one of the Wilson managers, said:

"The vote gives us absolute assurances as to where Clark stands. Clark has allied himself with the old guard. This leaves Wilson the only avowed progressive in the race—that is, a propressive who will not yield his principles on any account. He is in the race to stay on that line. We are in better shape than at any time, for the reason that we can place our finger upon all the candidates. After the first or second ballots the Wilson strength will grow until he is nominated.

Not Sure About California.

"The convention is, we know, more than two-thirds progressive. For instance, we made no particular showing in the vote from New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana and Illinois. From all of these states we will get progressive votes because they are there. Then there are Montana, Utah and California. I am not sure about California, because I do not know how far the Hearst influence extends there, but I am in hopes that we will overcome that or that Hearst will weaken.

"Now, I am going to say something that may surprise you. New York state cannot be surely counted upon in the final analysis for Clark. Why, the New York leaders have their state ticket at stake. To carry that ticket through they must be on a presidential winner. They probably can't win with Clark with Roosevelt in the field. The men that control there are no political fools. They are looking out for the state success first, and if a progressive will bring it they are going to that progressive whether they like his principles or not."

His Offense Was Serious.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 26.—J. H. Pierce who got 25 cents with which to buy breakfast on a forged check, was found guilty and given a five-year sentence by a jury. Clemency was recommended.

Navy Yards to be Idle.

WOMEN TRIED TO RESCUE MEXICANS

Desperate Attempt to Release Political Prisoners at Los Angeles.

REBEL LEADER ASKS FOR TERMS

Orozco Reported to Have Made Overtures to Madero for Surrender of Himself and His Men.

Los Angeles, June 26.—Spurred on by the shrieks of women leaders, a mob of several hundred Mexicans and their sympathizers made what the police declared to be an organized attempt to rescue Ricardo Flores Magon, Enrique Magon, Anselmo Figueroa and Librado Rivera, alleged leaders of the recent revolution in Lower California against President Diaz, as they were leaving the court house for the county jail after being sentenced to one year and 11 months imprisonment each on McNeil's island for violation of the neutrality laws.

When the Magons appeared the crowd rushed on the five officers guarding them. A riot call was sent in and several wagon loads of police men were soon on the scene.

Police Clubs Used.

Lucile Norman, Mercedes Figueroa Fera Figueroa, Valentine Espinosa and a Mrs. Celevela, either relatives or friends of the convicted men, urged the crowd on, they themselves leading the assault.

Reinforced, the police began to use their clubs, and within five minutes more than 25 of the rioters lay on the pavement half unconscious from blows on their heads.

The five women, together with 14 men, were placed under arrest and the crowd broke up. During the fight the Magons remained silent spectators, not one of them, however, making the slightest attempt to take advantage of the situation to escape. They were allowed ten days to perfect an appeal from their sentence.

Orozco Will Surrender?

Mexico City, June 26.—An unconfirmed report was heard here to the effect that Orozco, rebel leader, had communicated to President Madero his willingness to surrender and asked for terms for himself and men. It is believed the subject was discussed in a cabinet meeting.

With this report came the news from a source heretofore dependable that amnesty without reservation is to be extended to all political offenders after the expected collapse of the revolution.

INDIANS MURDERING MEXICANS

Planter and Two Laborers Shot From Ambush—Trains Fired Upon Many Times.

Guaymas, Mex., June 26.—Near Pesqueira, a Sonora railroad station about 20 miles above Hermosillo, Don Manuel Abascilla, a rich planter and two of his laborers, were killed by a volley fired from ambush, supposedly by Yaquis. His other companions were wounded, but one of them escaped through the brush and reached the railroad to report the attack.

Within the past few weeks the Yaquis have fired into three trains standing out on the right of way. Their bad shooting is the only explanation of the lack of casualties.

JOHN W. KERN,

Bryan's Choice for Temporary Chairman, But Declined to Run.

NEW PARTY WANTS MR. BRYAN

PERKINS WOULD WELCOME HIM IN ROOSEVELT CAMP.

Leaders Say There is no Reason Why He Should Not Identify Himself With New Movement.

Chicago, June 26.—"We will make them sit up and take notice. The Progressive party is the party of the people and the people will rule."

Those were the words of George W. Perkins, supporter of Col. Roosevelt and one of the leaders in the third party movement, as he left Chicago for the East early in the afternoon. Mr. Perkins was one of the last Roosevelt leaders to leave the city after the Republican national convention.

News of the defeat of William Jennings Bryan in the Baltimore convention by the conservative faction was received with no concealment of joy by adherents of Theodore Roosevelt, who are busy with the preliminaries of organizing a new political party in Illinois.

"It means that Mr. Bryan can now openly declare his despair of injecting progressive principles into the Democratic party and there is no reason why he should not ally himself with Col. Roosevelt and the fight for political freedom," said Medill McCormick.

News Pleases Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 26.—With the organization of the new Progressive party definitely under way, ex-President Roosevelt returned to his home from Chicago. He was smiling and, he said, in fighting trim. He made it clear that the work would be pushed ahead with full steam on.

Col. Roosevelt was greatly pleased at the news from Baltimore. He showed how closely he was keeping in touch with the situation there by reciting the vote by which William J. Bryan had been defeated a short time before in his contest with Alton B. Parker for the chairmanship of the convention.

PARKER MAKES KEYNOTE SPEECH

Opened With a Roast for Roosevelt and Closed by Endorsing Canadian Reciprocity.

Baltimore, June 26.—Judge Alton B. Parker, as temporary chairman, made the keynote speech at the Democratic convention. He began with a long attack on Theodore Roosevelt, characterizing him as a man with a lust for power "insatiable as Caesar's." He declared that the election of any man to a third term meant the breaking of all national traditions and the inevitable ruin of the Republic.

Discussing policies, Judge Parker declared that a tariff for revenue only was the paramount issue and said that Canadian reciprocity was right and that the people of Canada would soon change their mind and accept the treaty.

WOMEN TO DISCUSS OWENS BILL

Warm Debates at Meeting of Federation of Clubs Just Opened in San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 26.—Three big topics will be the main themes of discussion during the sessions of the General Federation of Women's clubs, which has just opened here.

These subjects are: The Owens Bill to create a national bureau of health, a measure now before congress; the suffrage question and uniform marriage and divorce laws.

The first named has met with strenuous opposition from the medical fraternity generally and especially from the League of Medical Freedom. There is promise of warm debate on all three topics. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Colorado probably will lead the fight in behalf of woman suffrage.

Fund Raised for Bridge.

Boonville, Mo., June 26.—A meeting of a committee of prominent business men and capitalists of Boonville appointed several weeks ago to raise $250,000 to be used in erecting a wagon bridge over the Missouri river at this point was held and the committee succeeded in raising the money for the project. The bridge will connect the Santa Fe trail in Howard and Cooper counties.

Judge Parker, Named as Temporary Chairman, May be Useful to Reactionaries—Speech Brought No Reply.

Baltimore, June 26.—Alton B. Parker 578, William Jennings Bryan 510.

The progressive element of the Democratic party led by William Jennings Bryan with all the earnestness and with all the eloquence he is capable of, went down to defeat in the national convention at the afternoon session in the first conflict with the reactionary wing of the party.

Pitted against Bryan was the reactionary element made up of the Thomas F. Ryans, the Boss Murphys, the Tom Taggarts, the Roger Sullivans and the other bosses of high and low degree who are linked up with what has come to be referred to as "predatory wealth."

Issue Fairly Put.

The issue between the progressives and the reactionaries was squarely put up to the convention by the man who had been the leader of the party in three campaigns.

He pleaded with an eloquence and an earnestness that commanded the admiration even of his enemies against the selection of the man who led the disastrous campaign of 1904—Alton B. Parker.

He urged the dangers of an alliance with special privilege and referred to the repudiation of the party when it abandoned the cause of the people by the nomination of Parker in 1904. He pleaded with the convention for fidelity to the cause of the masses, who had in the past put their faith in the Democratic party; he called on the party to be true to the faith, not to abandon the principles and pledges of the past.

He pointed out, with the clarity and eloquence that Bryan alone is capable of, the chance for victory that lay with the adherence to the faith that in 1908 brought the party the votes of 6,500,000 American citizens; the faith that had passed the adoption of many of its reforms by the Republican party and that caused a tremendous division of that party.

No one to Reply.

All in vain. Nothing that can be accorded the dignity of a reply was made in answer to Bryan's arguments. The reactionaries sat before him, stolid and glum—Ryan in the Virginia delegation, Chief Murphy with his Tammany crowd under the standard of New York, and Roger Sullivan of Chicago.

They had counted up and they knew they had the votes. They were right. The leader of three campaigns was turned down and humiliated, and the agent on whom the forces of reaction centered their strength was Alton B. Parker of New York. A more complete humiliation could not have been devised.

As temporary chairman Judge Parker can be useful to special privilege in emphasizing its control of the party, and it is predicted that before adjournment the reactionaries will, with the assistance of the temporary chairman, make their control more emphatic than was indicated by the day's vote.

West Virginia—Parker, 9½; Bryan, 6½
Virginia—Parker, 14; Bryan, 10.
Wisconsin—Parker, 0; Bryan, 26.
Wyoming—Parker, 0; Bryan, 6.

Bryan has fought and lost but his great fight has made the issue clear. He has shown the country that the same forces that "put over" Taft's nomination at Chicago are at work here. They have taken the Clark candidacy into their own keeping. That is the one great fact disclosed by the vote on the temporary chairmanship.

D. E. Clayton of Bedford, Ia., was in Maryville Tuesday evening on his way to the Burlington Junction mineral springs for treatment.

MANY MEN WANT SECOND PLACE

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS ARE BUSILY MILLING.

Geographical Position Will be Given Much Weight in Selection of Candidate.

Baltimore, June 26.—There was much consideration by the Democratic leaders of available timber for the vice presidential nomination. While admitting that geographical considerations would control, and that final selection would not be possible until after the head of the ticket had been decided upon, the claims of the various candidates were discussed.

If Bryan should be nominated for president, the general impression was that he would prevail on Gov. Wilson of New Jersey to be his running mate, though Wilson has told his friends that under no circumstances would he accept second place.

There was a well defined boom in certain circles for Senator O'Gorman of New York, who has taken a distinct stand for progressive measures ever since he entered the senate.

Gov. Marshall of Indiana, although a presidential candidate, had many warm supporters, as had Gov. Foss of Massachusetts and Gov. Baldwin of Connecticut.

Congressman William Sulzer of New York had a personally conducted boom which he said was promising.

Gov. Dix of New York has made a good impression on many delegates, especially those from the Western states.

Mayor Preston of Baltimore has established headquarters, and hopes to win because of his position below the Mason and Dixon line as do also Clark, Howell of Georgia, and ex-Gov. Montague of Virginia.

BIG JOB BEFORE TEDDY

Political Highway is Strewn With Wrecks of Independent Party Movements—Taft Can't Win.

(By W. C. VAN CLEVE.)

Washington, D. C., June 24.—The Chicago convention has come to an end and in the cold gray dawn of the morning after we may cast about for the net results. Taft is the Republican party nominee and Roosevelt heads an independent movement. It was stated in this column two weeks ago that the convention would nominate Taft, and Roosevelt would have himself nominated and continue the fight.

Mr. Taft will be beaten in November and Roosevelt will not be elected. Both are prepared for such an end to their feud and both will be satisfied. With Taft the standpat element retains control of the party and the party machinery. The only thing left for the colonel is to attempt to still further engrave his name on the pages of history as the founder of a new party.

What success Roosevelt will have remains to be seen. The Republican party as now constituted needs to be purged. It has been run for years in the interest of trusts and illegitimate financial combinations. It has fed the public cow straw and milked her for the corporations, and the people have at last waked up to the deception and double dealing. They have heard from the mouths of its own leaders, during their recent discussions, that there has been something rotten in Denmark; that the party has been unfair and dishonest with the people, and that it has subverted the rights of the public to the benefit of a privileged few. It has seen, too, in this convention, that the powers that control will stop at nothing to maintain the deception and to continue the unholy partnership.

That the people have lost faith in their idol is evidenced by the light vote in the presidential primaries. Mr. Roosevelt made much of his success in securing delegates by the primary method, and yet the fact remains that a minority of the Republican party voted at these primaries. With the president of the United States and an ex-president speaking in every important town, and with an unlimited supply of money to spend in organization and newspaper space it was seldom that a vote was secured larger than 40 per cent of the party strength.

The inevitable conclusion is that after listening to the kettle call the pot black, the majority were disgusted and refused to see any choice between two evils. What would it profit them whether the steel trust and the harvester trust and the Morgan interests dominated the White House or whether the trusts now in power should remain supreme? It makes no particular difference to the man about to be eaten which particular cannibal gets him. So they remained in their fields and will keep their powder dry until November.

Colonel Roosevelt probably lost ground by his personal appearance at Chicago. He does not look so good at short range as he does at long distance. The imagination creates ideals which the eye ofttimes shatters. If Mr. Roosevelt's financial backers are willing to continue to supply him with the sinews of war, and his zeal does not desert him, he will do the old organization considerable damage. He has, however, undertaken a herculean task. The matter of inducing men in their sober moments to desert an old party, however rotten it may be, for a new one is a big job. Men usually want their votes to count for something, and the political highway is strewn with the wrecks of independent parties. The progressive party, as it is to be christened, may serve a purpose and show the standpat bosses that they must eventually mend their ways, it may carry one or two states, but the chances are that two Republicans will vote the Democratic ticket where one votes for the progressive Republican candidate. The situation will also tend to cause those whose party prejudice will not permit them to vote with the Democrats to remain away from the polls and not vote at all. But all this matters but little. With or without a progressive party the Democratic nominee in this particular year will sweep the entire west and carry every close state in the east.

The convention not only lifted Colonel Roosevelt's political hide in the nomination of Taft, but it rubbed salt and pepper in when it renominated Sherman for vice president. Four years ago Taft was nominated to please the Roosevelt contingent and Sherman was slipped in to appease the Cannon crowd. Now the Aldrich-Cannon bunch have the whole business.

* * *

Not the least interesting feature of the convention from long distance was the figure cut by Missouri's governor. It would appear that Herbert tore his trousers at Chicago. He went over to the convention with distinct hopes for a vice presidential nomination on the Roosevelt ticket. He was pushed to the front and was made floor leader. He got an ovation and took it seriously. It apparently set the bees to buzzing in his bonnet beyond all control, and he immediately saw visions of the White House. But the dream was rudely ended. What Roosevelt did to Hadley was a plenty, and he did it mighty quick. It was no more nor less than to issue a statement that there would be no compromise candidate, that no genuine progressive would accept a nomination from the convention "unless purged," and that any man nominated by it would not be entitled to progressive support. The effect was to put it up to Hadley to get his votes from the Taft men. The Taft men carried a distinct recollection of a double cross received from the governor at St. Louis, and there was no more heard of Hadley for president. He was not present, so reports say, at the meeting at which Roosevelt was proclaimed an independent candidate.

FINE NEWS SERVICE.

The Report of the National Convention Best Ever Had in Maryville.

The Democrat-Forum is receiving much praise and many commendations for the excellent, full and prompt manner in which it handled the news of the national Republican convention at Chicago last week. It was the best ever received in Maryville, coming as it did from two sources, from the Western Newspaper Union over the Western Union wires and through the Bell Telephone company of this city. The Bell is also maintaining a bulletin board in front of their office on Fourth street.

The Democrat-Forum will bulletin news of the Baltimore convention. The convention opened Tuesday, and as the bulletins were received they were placed in the windows. A large crowd of people was in front of the office all afternoon reading the latest news from Baltimore.

Great interest is being taken in the convention this week, and The Democrat-Forum has made arrangements to handle the convention news. If you want to get the best and true account of the convention, come around to this office and read the bulletins.

DR. FORD TO REMAIN

M. E. PASTOR TURNS DOWN OFFER OF NEW APPOINTMENT.

FELT HIS DUTY WAS HERE

In Spite of Attractiveness of New Field, Duty's Call Will Be Heeded—His Membership Rejoices.

Dr. J. S. Ford, pastor of the First M. E. church of this city, has decided to remain in Maryville and turned down, Monday night, the offer of Baker University at Baldwin, Kan., to take charge of raising a $500,000 endowment fund for that university.

This will be good news not only to the members of the church, but to all of the people of Maryville who think highly of Dr. Ford. Dr. Ford has been one of the much loved pastors and one of the best ministers ever in Maryville.

There was great disappointment over Maryville when it was announced that Dr. Ford was thinking of accepting an offer from Baker university, one of which was so much better financially than the Maryville church, and work commenced at once not only by the members of that church, but by other people to urge him to stay. When it was announced Tuesday that Dr. Ford was to remain, they felt glad.

The following is a statement that was written to this paper by Dr. Ford:

"I feel that I owe it to the Democrat-Forum which has treated me with such courtesy, and to the public, and to my own church and people to make the following statement:

"I sent the following telegram to President Wilbur N. Mason last night:

"'The pull toward Baker university is very strong, but under the circumstances the pull toward the Maryville church is stronger. Be assured that I appreciate highly your confidence, and that of your board of trustees, but I must ask that you accept this decision as final.'

"Mrs. Ford and I feel that under all the conditions this is the right thing for us to do. We are delighted with our church and with the people of Maryville, and because of this it is much easier for us to decide the proposition of Baker university. We had the matter under consideration from Tuesday until Saturday before we decided to bring it before the church at all. I had made it very clear to the executive committee of Baker university that the Maryville church had accorded us the most gracious treatment, and that we must give such treatment in return, and therefore I could not consent to going until adjustments satisfactory to this church, and to the district superintendent, Dr. W. B. Christy, could be made. This was made clear also to my district superintendent and my official board. Both have treated the matter with the most beautiful spirit.

"Dr. Christy feels that it would be very unfortunate for this church for me to give up its pastorate at this time, though he made it clear that he would not put any thing in my way. If it were conference time he would feel differently about it. Others have expressed the same opinion. Over and above all this Dr. Christy has been called to the bedside of his son who is down with typhoid fever in Little Rock, Arkansas, and will have to be there two or more weeks. He cannot be here to consult with the officials of this church and to give such careful consideration to the subject as he would want to give. This pastor has been district superintendent and knows something of the embarrassments, burdens and heartaches that come to one with such responsibility. Mrs. Ford and I both feel that under the circumstances we not only have it within our power to speak the word which will adjust this whole matter, but that we would be unworthy of the place we ocupy in the church we love if we were unwilling to speak that word. We do speak it, and the speaking of it does not cause, nor ever shall cause, any wounds in our hearts.

"J. S. FORD.

BRYAN REFUSED IT

CHAIRMANSHIP OF RESLUTIONS COMMITTEE TURNED DOWN.

NAME PRESIDENT FIRST

Change in Rules to Meet Wishes of Commoner—Candidate to Be Named Before Platform.

To Meet at 8 o'Clock.

At 2 o'clock the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight, when the various committees will report, with the exception of the resolutions committee.

Rule Was Amended.

The rules committee will report to the convention tonight. They have amended the rule so as to nominate a president before adopting a platform, to conform to the wishes of W. J. Bryan. This is taken to mean that in case a progressive candidate is nominated the platform will be progressive, and if a reactionary candidate is selected to have a reactionary platform adopted.

Bryan Refused to Act.

W. J. Bryan, who had been suggested by Chairman Parker for chairman of the resolutions committee, refused to accept the place. Senator Kern of Indiana was elected chairman of the committee at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Bryan said he does not think the platform will be progressive, adding:

"Why should resolutions committee slap controlling element in the face with a progressive platform?"

Ollie James for Permanent Chairman.

The committee on permanent organization has selected Ollie James, senator-elect from Kentucky, as permanent chairman of the convention.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, Md., June 26.—The second day's session of the Democratic national convention met today about 12 o'clock. The weather was very hot.

Judge Alton B. Parker was cheered as he appeared on the platform. Bishop John Murry of Maryland offered the invocation. Chairman Parker has trouble in getting the convention to order.

The credentials committee asks until 8 o'clock to complete hearing contests, and it was moved that when the convention adjourns it do so until 8 o'clock.

Several speakers addressed the convention, Ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri being the first one. Mr. Folk eulogized Bryan and called him the greatest moral teacher of the age. He made argument for nomination of progressive Democrat and for the adoption of a progressive platform.

While Mr. Folk was talking the convention was in disorder, and Chairman Parker said:

"There is no excuse for this moving about in the aisles. No gentleman will talk to his neighbor while this distinguished speaker is talking.

General Raynor of Baltimore followed Mr. Folk. As the general came to the platform the band started playing and the crowds were wild. Order was restored. Clayton of Alabama followed Mr. Raynor, after which Senator Gore of Oklahoma spoke. During Mr. Gore's speech the convention was very quiet and orderly. He urged the adoption of a progressive platform.

Resolutions Committee to Meet.

Chairman Parker announced that the committee on resolutions would meet at 2 o'clock in room C.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

At Meeting Held at Skidmore Tuesday Over Drainage Ditch From Quitman to Holt County Line.

At a meeting held at the opera house at Skidmore on Tuesday afternoon no action was taken by the many landholders present in regard to a drainage ditch in that section of the country. The intention of many is to have the ditch built similar to the one from Braddyville to Quitman, and to start with the proposed new ditch at Quitman and then run down to the Holt county drainage ditch, or about eleven miles.

While the meeting didn't do anything, for the reason that they did not have the data, such as the cost of constructing the ditch and of forming an organization, the sentiment is in favor of proceeding with the undertaking. Another meeting will be held within the near future, when some data will be presented why the ditch should be built.

It is thought that the landholders will build the ditch, but not until it is necessary for them to do so.

CHURCH PICNIC ON TUESDAY.

The Presbyterians Had an Enjoyable Affair at the Watson Farm West of City.

Bachelors are three times as good as married men, and they proved it Tuesday when the single men's ball team beat the married men's team 18 to 6 at the Presbyterian picnic held at Watson's farm, west of Maryville. The married men had a four-foot willow bat and made ground rules that any ball over the fence was good for only one base. But even that could not bring them the victory.

After the game a number of events were run off, high jumping, married and single men's races, and several races by the young women; then there were some more races by other women (of the same age). Rev. Harkness also performed the herculean feat of lifting seven men, with Judge Crawford as the goat. The best event of the day, however, was the blind men's fight, in which Will Sawyers and Roland Murray featured. They were blindfolded and given paper clubs, and in their efforts to "swat" each other they pounded the grass unmercifully and made jagged holes in the air.

It would be superfluous to try to tell of the piles of chicken, meat, sandwiches, cake, ice cream, etc.

It was nearly 6 o'clock before the happy, sticky, picnicky crowd was ready to go home in the hay racks, buggies and automobiles that had been provided to haul every one. Everybody was better acquainted with everybody else, was refreshed from the grind, and plans were being made for another picnic as soon as possible.

FORMER PRESIDENT SPOKE.

Professor Frank Deerwester of Washington Addressed State Normal Students Wednesday.

Professor Frank Deerwester of Bellingham, Wash., addressed the State Normal students at assembly hour Wednesday morning. He made a most happy speech, expressing gratification over the success of the school and admiration for the beauty of the new building. The fact that he was the first president of the school and carried on the pioneer work of its establishment added to the interest of his address.

In company with his daughter, Dorothy, who will visit in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Robinson, Professor Deerwester went through the building Wednesday morning. He arrived in the city Tuesday night and was the guest of the Robinsons until Wednesday evening, when he left for New York City.

SAYS IT IS CLARK.

Harry Irwin Wires That the Missourian Will Win, as Tuesday's Vote Eliminates Wilson.

Harry M. Irwin of this city, who is attending the Democratic national convention at Baltimore this week, sent a telegram to Frank Owens, being received at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The telegram was sent Tuesday night from Baltimore.

The telegram reads:

"All here agree Tuesday's vote eliminates Wilson and practically assures Clark's nomination. Harmony prevails Tuesday night. Parker's speech demands Bryan for chairman of resolutions committee and pleases progressives. Leaders predict Clark's nomination by third ballot, perhaps on first. Crowds on street and in hotels wild for Clark and can't supply Clark badges fast enough."

The program for the convention will be announced in two weeks or so. A part of the program was arranged Tuesday.

Rev. C. J. Miller, pastor of the Christian church here, is president of the county association.

Harrison L. Gilbert was born in Lee county, Virginia, June 27, 1890. met death by drowning in the Nodaway river, June 23, 1912. Age, 21 years 11 months 26 days.

His parents came to Missouri when he was about 2 years of age, and he has resided within the boundaries of this state ever since. He was very highly esteemed and loved by the members of his family, being the youngest of eight children. He was united in holy matrimony to Miss Florence Wickard, January 11, 1911. This union was a happy one, both esteeming each other as highly as is possible for husband and wife.

As husband he was loving and tender, as son he was affectionate and obedient, as brother he was kind and forbearing, and as friend he was devoted and true.

He was converted to the Lord about two years ago and joined the M. E. church in Barnard, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

He leaves his beloved wife, Mrs. Florence Gilbert; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gilbert; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson; six brothers, Riley, William, Albert, Floyd, Silas and Marion Gilbert. Also one half-sister, Mrs. Alfred Gilbert, and one half-brother, J. D. Kelley, as well as many relatives and friends to mourn his departure.

The body of the deceased was brought from his home, near Maryville, Mo., to Barnard, his former home, where the funeral services were conducted by the writer in the First M. E. church, after which the the body was laid to rest in a cemetery near by. "Blest hour when righteous souls shall meet—
Shall meet to part no more;
And with celestial welcome greet
On an immortal shore!

Each tender tie dissolved with pain,
With endless bliss is crowned;
All that was dead revives again,
All that was lost is found."

W. E. ROYSTON,
Pastor M. E. Church, Barnard, Mo.

Depending On.

An artist of international fame recently had a bright little Swedish girl posing for him, and thinking to keep her expression animated, he conversed with her while he worked.

"Do you go to school, Ragnhild?" the great man inquired with affable complacency.

"Oh yes," was the reply.

"And what are you going to be when you grow up?"

Ranghild's face beamed.

"If I have sense," she answered, "I will be a school teacher. If I have no sense, I will paint pictures—like you."

A Long Excuse.

The magazine writer rolled in late at night and found his better half sitting up, awaiting his coming.

"What have you got to offer this time?" she demanded.

"I can give you a 1,200 words story," was the reply of the writer, whose answer was dictated by force of habit.

Colorado is a Wonderful Place for Children

I don't know any other place where children are so benefited from a few weeks of outdoor life, as they are in Colorado. The summer life cut there is about as ideal as can be imagined, and you can live there nowadays so comfortably, and at such moderate cost. There are scores of nice, clean, wholesome boarding houses and ranch houses in Colorado where the rates are from $10 to $15 a week, and where you can live well and comfortably. Then, of course, there are elaborate, modern hotels for those who require more.

If you know of anyone who is going to Colorado, ask them to come in and get a copy of our folder, telling all about where to go, what to see, etc. It is easy to go to Colorado—only-one-night-on-the-road—and the trains are so comfortable and modern that the trip out and back is really a great part of the pleasure of it all.

CLARK'S CHANCES APPEAR BETTER

Supporters of Missourian Confident of His Nomination.

WILSON MEN ALSO SEE VICTORY

Friends of New Jersey Man Claim He is the Only Real Progressive Before the Convention—First Ballot Wednesday Night.

Baltimore, June 26.—Champ Clark looms up now as the probable nominee of the Democratic convention. The swing is with Clark.

It will not be a first ballot nomination. The reason is that the favorite son instructions must be followed. Harmon must receive his 57 instructed votes; Underwood his 91, but after the first ballot the expected may happen.

The first ballot on president will probably come late Wednesday night.

Under the two-thirds rule—and talk of abandoning that rule seems to have vanished—it takes 728 votes to land the nomination. Whether in the end Clark will get enough additions to his instructed and pledged delegates to bring his total up to the desired figure depends in a large measure on the action of Chief Murphy and the other leaders of the forces of reaction; on whether they will in the end throw their support to the man from Missouri.

Tammany Votes Uncertain.

There is always suspicion about an unfulfilled pledge of Tammany, and Tammany and the reactionaries in this convention are one.

The Clark supporters believe, and believe firmly, that they are to have New York's 90 votes, and the hundreds of Missourians in Baltimore are jubilant over the favorable outlook for the Speaker.

Ex-Gov. Francis said:

"It's quite possible that Mr. Clark will have a majority on the first ballot. I do not rely upon that much but it is possible. On the second or third ballot, however, I am sure that he will show up with a majority of the delegates. Of that I am positive. The candidate who first shows a majority will then get the two-thirds. That is Democratic convention history."

"No, he will not get the entire Parker vote. We don't expect that. But he will get a goodly portion of it. Besides, we know that he will draw from the Bryan vote."

"He has so conducted himself that when the voting begins the ultra-conservatives and the ultra-progressives can come to him. He has done nothing to offend anyone. If he wins it will be a great presidential victory. He will have won with scarcely any money for campaign purposes."

Wilson Not Downcast.

The Woodrow Wilson supporters profess not to be downcast by the defeat of the progressives in the Parker-Bryan vote. R. S. Hudspeth, national committeeman from New Jersey, one of the Wilson managers, said:

"The vote gives us absolute assurances as to where Clark stands. Clark has allied himself with the old guard. This leaves Wilson the only avowed progressive in the race—that is, a propressive who will not yield his principles on any account. He is in the race to stay on that line. We are in better shape than at any time, for the reason that we can place our finger upon all the candidates. After the first or second ballots the Wilson strength will grow until he is nominated.

Not Sure About California.

"The convention is, we know, more than two-thirds progressive. For instance, we made no particular showing in the vote from New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana and Illinois. From all of these states we will get progressive votes because they are there. Then there are Montana, Utah and California. I am not sure about California, because I do not know how far the Hearst influence extends there, but I am in hopes that we will overcome that or that Hearst will weaken.

"Now, I am going to say something that may surprise you. New York state cannot be surely counted upon in the final analysis for Clark. Why, the New York leaders have their state ticket at stake. To carry that ticket through they must be on a presidential winner. They probably can't win with Clark with Roosevelt in the field. The men that control there are no political fools. They are looking out for the state success first, and if a progressive will bring it they are going to that progressive whether they like his principles or not."

His Offense Was Serious.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 26.—J. H. Pierce who got 25 cents with which to buy breakfast on a forged check, was found guilty and given a five-year sentence by a jury. Clemency was recommended.

Navy Yards to be Idle.

WOMEN TRIED TO RESCUE MEXICANS

Desperate Attempt to Release Political Prisoners at Los Angeles.

REBEL LEADER ASKS FOR TERMS

Orozco Reported to Have Made Overtures to Madero for Surrender of Himself and His Men.

Los Angeles, June 26.—Spurred on by the shrieks of women leaders, a mob of several hundred Mexicans and their sympathizers made what the police declared to be an organized attempt to rescue Ricardo Flores Magon, Enrique Magon, Anselmo Figueroa and Librado Rivera, alleged leaders of the recent revolution in Lower California against President Diaz, as they were leaving the court house for the county jail after being sentenced to one year and 11 months imprisonment each on McNeil's island for violation of the neutrality laws.

When the Magons appeared the crowd rushed on the five officers guarding them. A riot call was sent in and several wagon loads of police men were soon on the scene.

Police Clubs Used.

Lucile Norman, Mercedes Figueroa Fera Figueroa, Valentine Espinosa and a Mrs. Celevela, either relatives or friends of the convicted men, urged the crowd on, they themselves leading the assault.

Reinforced, the police began to use their clubs, and within five minutes more than 25 of the rioters lay on the pavement half unconscious from blows on their heads.

The five women, together with 14 men, were placed under arrest and the crowd broke up. During the fight the Magons remained silent spectators, not one of them, however making the slightest attempt to take advantage of the situation to escape. They were allowed ten days to perfect an appeal from their sentence.

Orozco Will Surrender?

Mexico City, June 26.—An unconfirmed report was heard here to the effect that Orozco, rebel leader, had communicated to President Madero his willingness to surrender and asked for terms for himself and men. It is believed the subject was discussed in a cabinet meeting.

With this report came the news from a source heretofore dependable that amnesty without reservation is to be extended to all political offenders after the expected collapse of the revolution.

INDIANS MURDERING MEXICANS

Planter and Two Laborers Shot From Ambush—Trains Fired Upon Many Times.

Guaymas, Mex., June 26.—Near Pesqueira, a Sonora railroad station about 20 miles above Hermosillo, Don Manuel Abascilla, a rich planter and two of his laborers, were killed by a volley fired from ambush, supposedly by Yaquis. His other companions were wounded, but one of them escaped through the brush and reached the railroad to report the attack.

Within the past few weeks the Yaquis have fired into three trains standing out on the right of way. Their bad shooting is the only explanation of the lack of casualties.

JOHN W. KERN,

Bryan's Choice for Temporary Chairman, But Declined to Run.

NEW PARTY WANTS MR. BRYAN

PERKINS WOULD WELCOME HIM IN ROOSEVELT CAMP.

Leaders Say There is no Reason Why He Should Not Identify Himself With New Movement.

Chicago, June 26.—"We will make them sit up and take notice. The Progressive party is the party of the people and the people will rule."

Those were the words of George W. Perkins, supporter of Col. Roosevelt and one of the leaders in the third party movement, as he left Chicago for the East early in the afternoon. Mr. Perkins was one of the last Roosevelt leaders to leave the city after the Republican national convention.

News of the defeat of William Jennings Bryan in the Baltimore convention by the conservative faction was received with no concealment of joy by adherents of Theodore Roosevelt, who are busy with the preliminaries of organizing a new political party in Illinois.

"It means that Mr. Bryan can now openly declare his despair of injecting progressive principles into the Democratic party and there is no reason why he should not ally himself with Col. Roosevelt and the fight for political freedom," said Medill McCormick.

News Pleases Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 26.—With the organization of the new Progressive party definitely under way, ex-President Roosevelt returned to his home from Chicago. He was smiling and, he said, in fighting trim. He made it clear that the work would be pushed ahead with full steam on.

Col. Roosevelt was greatly pleased at the news from Baltimore. He showed how closely he was keeping in touch with the situation there by reciting the vote by which William J. Bryan had been defeated a short time before in his contest with Alton B. Parker for the chairmanship of the convention.

PARKER MAKES KEYNOTE SPEECH

Opened With a Roast for Roosevelt and Closed by Endorsing Canadian Reciprocity.

Baltimore, June 26.—Judge Alton B. Parker, as temporary chairman, made the keynote speech at the Democratic convention. He began with a long attack on Theodore Roosevelt, characterizing him as a man with a lust for power "insatiable as Caesar's." He declared that the election of any man to a third term meant the breaking of all national traditions and the inevitable ruin of the Republic.

Discussing policies, Judge Parker declared that a tariff for revenue only was the paramount issue and said that Canadian reciprocity was right and that the people of Canada would soon change their mind and accept the treaty.

WOMEN TO DISCUSS OWENS BILL

Warm Debates at Meeting of Federation of Clubs Just Opened in San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 26.—Three big topics will be the main themes of discussion during the sessions of the General Federation of Women's clubs, which has just opened here.

These subjects are: The Owens Bill to create a national bureau of health, a measure now before congress; the suffrage question and uniform marriage and divorce laws.

The first named has met with strenuous opposition from the medical fraternity generally and especially from the League of Medical Freedom. There is promise of warm debate on all three topics. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Colorado probably will lead the fight in behalf of woman suffrage.

Fund Raised for Bridge.

Boonville, Mo., June 26.—A meeting of a committee of prominent business men and capitalists of Boonville appointed several weeks ago to raise $250,000 to be used in erecting a wagon bridge over the Missouri river at this point was held and the committee succeeded in raising the money for the project. The bridge will connect the Santa Fe trail in Howard and Cooper counties.

ELOQUENCE OF BRYAN FAILED

Democratic Leader Was Humiliated in National Convention.

PROGRESSIVES WERE DEFEATED

Judge Parker, Named as Temporary Chairman, May be Useful to Reactionaries—Speech Brought No Reply.

Baltimore, June 26.—Alton B. Parker 578, William Jennings Bryan 510.

The progressive element of the Democratic party led by William Jennings Bryan with all the earnestness and with all the eloquence he is capable of, went down to defeat in the national convention at the afternoon session in the first conflict with the reactionary wing of the party.

Pitted against Bryan was the reactionary element made up of the Thomas F. Ryans, the Boss Murphys, the Tom Taggarts, the Roger Sullivans and the other bosses of high and low degree who are linked up with what has come to be referred to as "predatory wealth."

Issue Fairly Put.

The issue between the progressives and the reactionaries was squarely put up to the convention by the man who had been the leader of the party in three campaigns.

He pleaded with an eloquence and an earnestness that commanded the admiration even of his enemies against the selection of the man who led the disastrous campaign of 1904—Alton B. Parker.

He urged the dangers of an alliance with special privilege and referred to the repudiation of the party when it abandoned the cause of the people by the nomination of Parker in 1904. He pleaded with the convention for fidelity to the cause of the masses, who had in the past put their faith in the Democratic party; he called on the party to be true to the faith, not to abandon the principles and pledges of the past.

He pointed out, with the clarity and eloquence that Bryan alone is capable of, the chance for victory that lay with the adherence to the faith that in 1908 brought the party the votes of 6,500,000 American citizens; the faith that had passed the adoption of many of its reforms by the Republican party and that caused a tremendous division of that party.

No one to Reply.

All in vain. Nothing that can be accorded the dignity of a reply was made in answer to Bryan's arguments. The reactionaries sat before him, stolid and glum—Ryan in the Virginia delegation, Chief Murphy with his Tammany crowd under the standard of New York, and Roger Sullivan of Chicago.

They had counted up and they knew they had the votes. They were right. The leader of three campaigns was turned down and humiliated, and the agent on whom the forces of reaction centered their strength was Alton B. Parker of New York. A more complete humiliation could not have been devised.

As temporary chairman Judge Parker can be useful to special privilege in emphasizing its control of the party, and it is predicted that before adjournment the reactionaries will, with the assistance of the temporary chairman, make their control more emphatic than was indicated by the day's vote.

The Vote.

The vote by states was as follows:

Alabama—Parker, 22½; Bryan, 1½.
Arizona—Parker, 2; Bryan, 4.
Arkansas—Parker, 18; Bryan, 0.
California—Parker, 18; Bryan, 7; Kern, 1.
Colorado—Parker, 4; Bryan, 6.
Connecticut—Parker, 12; Bryan, 2.
Delaware—Parker, 0; Bryan, 6.
Florida—Parker, 11; Bryan, 1.
Georgia—Parker, 28; Bryan, 0.
Idaho—Parker, 0; Bryan, 8.
Illinois—Parker, 58; Bryan, 0.
Indiana—Parker, 21; Bryan, 8.
Iowa—Parker, 13; Bryan, 13.
Kansas—Parker, 0; Bryan, 20.
Kentucky—Parker, 17½; Bryan, 7½; one not voting.
Louisiana—Parker, 10; Bryan, 10.
Maine—Parker, 11; Bryan, 1.
Maryland—Parker, 14½; Bryan, 1½.
Massachusetts—Parker, 15; Bryan, 17; O'Gorman, 4.
Michigan—Parker, 21; Bryan, 9.
Minnesota—Parker, 0; Bryan, 24.
Mississippi—Parker, 20; Bryan, 0.
Missouri—Parker, 22; Bryan, 14.
Montana—Parker, 1; Bryan, 7.
Nebraska—Parker, 3; Bryan, 13.
Nevada—Parker, 0; Bryan, 6.
New Hampshire—Parker, 3; Bryan, 5.
New Jersey—Parker, 4; Bryan, 24.
New Mexico—Parker, 0; Bryan, 8.
New York—Parker, 90; Bryan, 0.
North Carolina—Parker, 15; Bryan, 9.
North Dakota—Parker, 0; Bryan, 10.
Ohio—Parker, 29; Bryan, 19.
Oklahoma—Parker, 0; Bryan, 20.
Oregon—Parker, 1; Bryan, 9.
Pennsylvania—Parker, 9; Bryan, 67.
Rhode Island—Parker, 10; Bryan, 0.
South Carolina—Parker, 9; Bryan, 18.
South Dakota—Parker, 0; Bryan, 10.
Tennessee—Parker, 17; Bryan, 7.
Texas—Parker, 0; Bryan, 40.
Utah—Parker, 4; Bryan, 4.
Vermont—Parker, 8; Bryan, 0.
Washington—Parker, 0; Bryan, 14.
West Virginia—Parker, 2½; Bryan, 6½
Virginia—Parker, 14; Bryan, 10.
Wisconsin—Parker, 0; Bryan, 26.
Wyoming—Parker, 0; Bryan, 6.

Bryan has fought and lost but his great fight has made the issue clear. He has shown the country that the same forces that "put over" Taft's nomination at Chicago are at work here. They have taken the Clark candidacy into their own keeping. That is the one great fact disclosed by the vote on the temporary chairmanship.

D. E. Clayton of Bedford, Ia., was in Maryville Tuesday evening on his way to the Burlington Junction mineral springs for treatment.

MANY MEN WANT SECOND PLACE

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS ARE BUSILY MILLING.

Geographical Position Will be Given Much Weight in Selection of Candidate.

Baltimore, June 26.—There was much consideration by the Democratic leaders of available timber for the vice presidential nomination. While admitting that geographical considerations would control, and that final selection would not be possible until after the head of the ticket had been decided upon, the claims of the various candidates were discussed.

If Bryan should be nominated for president, the general impression was that he would prevail on Gov. Wilson of New Jersey to be his running mate, though Wilson has told his friends that under no circumstances would he accept second place.

There was a well defined boom in certain circles for Senator O'Gorman of New York, who has taken a distinct stand for progressive measures ever since he entered the senate.

Gov. Marshall of Indiana, although a presidential candidate, had many warm supporters, as had Gov. Foss of Massachusetts and Gov. Baldwin of Connecticut.

Congressman William Sulzer of New York had a personally conducted boom which he said was promising.

Gov. Dix of New York has made a good impression on many delegates, especially those from the Western states.

Mayor Preston of Baltimore has established headquarters, and hopes to win because of his position below the Mason and Dixon line as do also Clark, Howell of Georgia, and ex-Gov. Montague of Virginia.
